

► 2010 MPAEA Conference

Www.mpaea2010.org

MINING THE TREASURES IN ADULT EDUCATION

It's another Gold Rush!

It's a mining event that's the biggest bonanza in Adult Education in 2010!!
It's the upcoming MPAEA "Mining the Treasures in Adult Education" Conference

The Conference will be held at the Fiesta Resort Conference Center in Tempe, Arizona.
It's "AALL" about professional discovery and mining the multitude of treasures found in adult education, right here in our own region and across the country with our colleagues from the eight Mountain Plains states and beyond.

Mark Your calendars NOW for April 21-24, 2010 and join us as MPAEA celebrates 68 years of treasures!!

■ PRE-CONFERENCE

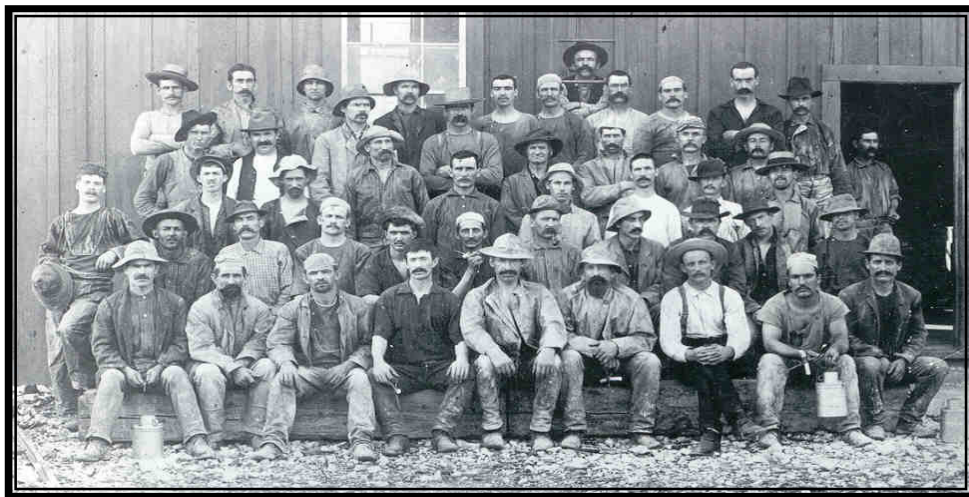

Spend an intimate day with national adult education expert Stephen Brookfield or learning disabilities for ELAA expert Robin Lovrien Schwarz or learning disabilities for ABE/ASE & GED® Testing Marty Dunham.

■ REGULAR CONFERENCE

Look for sessions from state, regional and national presenters.

■ SPECIAL FRIDAY EVENING & SATURDAY SESSIONS

For Students & Working Professionals

■ CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS

Check with your Program Directors and State Association.

The Conference is hosted by the Arizona Association for Lifelong Learning (AALL) in association with the Arizona Department of Education—Adult Education Services.